Sir,

Sub: New login id for Aarogyasri portal & Aarogyasri messaging services – Reg.

As you know, the online workflow of Aarogyasri is the key factor which is making the scheme administratively efficient and we have been taking continuous efforts to improve the efficiency of the portal by streamlining various processes.

I am happy to inform you that single sign-on has been developed for the Aarogyasri portal (www.aarogyasri.org) and Aarogyasri Messaging Services. This will be operational from 24.04.2009 onwards. The new user ids have to be used for all workflow operations by Network Hospitals. The RAMCO and AMCCO have been given separate userids for their respective roles. The new user id, password and e-mail id's of RAMCO and AMCCO area available as alert message in the current login of the Hospital in the following format:

RAMCO:

User Id for RAMCO: ramco_(hospital name)_(hospital location)

Aarogyasri Messaging Services e-mail id: ramco_(hospitalname)_(hospital location)@aarogyasri.org

Note: The RAMCO user id can be used for all workflow operations of Aarogyasri of the network hospital.

AMCCO:

User Id for AMCCO: amcco_(hospital name)_(hospital location)

Aarogyasri Messaging Services e-mail id: amcco_(hospital name)_(hospital location)@aarogyasri.org

Note: The AMCCO user id can be used for all health camp workflow operations of Aarogyasri of the network hospital.

All future communications will be sent to the new e-mail ids of RAMCO and AMCCO which is part of Aarogyasri messaging Services. If you sign in with the new login and password and just click on the Email Link, you can sign in to the mail automatically along with other functionalities. Please refer the manual on Aarogyasri Messaging Services for details. The group wise e-mail ids of Aarogyasri departments will be send to you inbox once you open the Aarogyasri messaging services. Kindly change the password immediately after the first login.

The present logins will be deactivated on 24.4.2009 and the RAMCO's and AMCCO'S have to use the new user ids, passwords and email ids from that day. The trust wishes the very best to all the network hospitals in using the above logins and making better use of Aarogyasri portal.
